

day. And yet there are some other things more strange. Listen! Did you ever hear of those who contend with all their powers in favor of feet-washing, Lord's supper etc., who will tell you to take the "whole gospel" without addition, subtraction or division, and yet those very people utterly refuse to practice their own teaching? Just open the gospel at I Cor. 13: and examine them on that wonderful "love" chapter, see if they have that love that "thinketh no evil," that "Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things." etc., without which, all else "profiteth nothing." Another illustration of the same spirit: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him" etc. I Cor. 16: 2.

I wonder whether even all of our pastors are teaching this part of the "whole gospel" along with ordinances? I feel safe in saying that if all pastors were to insist upon the literal preformance of this part of God's word, with the same zeal and earnestness that they give to some other things, we would soon see the receipts of the church increased many fold. I have often been greatly grieved to see pastors teaching "ordinances" with all of their soul powers, and yet if some one had requested them to take up a weekly offering they would almost have fainted. And remember that we can lay by in store on the first day of the week whether we can attend public worship or not. There are thousands of members who utterly and repeatedly fail to live up to this part of the gospel, and yet many of those same people are wondering why other people can't see and do some other things! Brother, before you talk about a "whole gospel" any more to others, be sure to include I Cor. 16: 2.

At different times I have received letters from pastors deploring the awful fact that their members would not give etc. In many cases perhaps it would not be so, had this part of God's word been presented as faithfully and earnestly as some other things. Brethren, we can never as a people show any great degree of power until we "measure up" on this line just as well as on others.

We are still rejoicing on our way in the work God has committed to us. Two more precious souls added by baptism on last Sunday evening.

Sister Mamie Thompson, of Harrisonburg, Virginia, spent several days with us recetly. We were pleased to have her with us. She seemed to enjoy the services very much.

We are always glad to have any of our dear brethren and sisters call on us and attend all of the services whenever they are visiting the city.

As soon as we lay ourselves entirely at His feet, we have enough light given us to guide our own steps; as the foot-soldier who hears nothing of the councils that determine the course of the great battle he is in, hears plainly enough the word of command which he must himself obey.—George Eliot.
